Rubber Matting Revolution!

Brought To You by Wearwell | Nov 04, 2019

If you've used it, you know it. Pathetic rubber mats that look great for a day, then come apart in use. They kick apart, slow your maintenance team, and cause a trip hazard for your employees! Why settle when 24/SEVEN® LockSafe® is finally here?

Wearwell said it, and they'll prove it: rubber matting that comes apart only when you want it to. Watch this short video to learn more:

24/SEVEN® LockSafe® has all the benefits of modular rubber matting, with none of the flaws you've come to accept. Available in modular and workstation styles.
